

Fundu Lagoon

LOCATION

Remote and peaceful, Fundu Lagoon has a distinct Robinson Crusoe air with charming rustic buildings nestling on the shore of the Indian Ocean, shaded by thatched roofs made from sundried coconut palms.

Only accessible by boat, the resort extends along a natural beach, where the lush jungle meets the sea. Fundu Lagoon's staff are almost all from the local villages and bush babies, velvet monkeys and dolphins also call Pemba home.

Whether relaxing by the infinity pool, wandering along the shore and watching local women collect seaweed for the beauty industry, kayaking through the mangroves or admiring the pristine coral gardens around nearby Misali island, days here can be as relaxed or fun-filled as you make them.

ACCOMODATION

Fundu Lagoon's eighteen rooms consist of canvas tents set under 'makuti' thatch roofs on wooden decks, all with views of the Indian Ocean. Beds are kings or twins. All categories have an en-suite bathroom with hot shower, ceiling fans, mosquito nets, an in-room fridge and a secure box.

HILLSIDE

Our standard bungalows enjoy privacy, panoramic views of the Indian Ocean and a cooling breeze. Decks accommodate a sofa and sun loungers.

BEACHFRONT

Inside, the layout is identical to the Hillside bungalows. Outside, there is direct access to the beach with a couple of sun loungers, as well as a small private deck.

BEACH SUITE

Situated right on the beach, this bungalow has an extensive private deck with a sunken seating area for relaxing or reading and a plunge pool.

JUNGLE SUITE

This bungalow offers the most privacy, set slightly back from the beach in the trees. It also has an extensive private deck with an elevated seating area for relaxing or reading and a plunge pool.

SUPERIOR SUITE

The largest of living spaces at Fundu Lagoon, these extensive suites offer deluxe accommodation incorporating a stylish bedroom and an open plan living area. The spacious outside deck area has a plunge pool and is perfect for intimate dining. The stone-walled bathroom has a double sink and a shower.

EAT & DRINK

There's something rather special about gazing out over the Indian Ocean while savouring freshly picked fruit and vegetables from the nearby villages or fish from the surrounding waters. We aim to source as much as possible locally and we hope it tastes all the better for it. Throw in a refreshing sea breeze to the mix and it's akin to being shipwrecked on a tropical island - in a totally civilised manner.

Our cuisine is a fusion of Swahili and international, with a choice of dishes. Meals are served in the main restaurant and the pool bar daily, with light bites or a three-course lunch and dinner. Each week we have a beach BBQ, with a bonfire under the stars and food cooked to order, as well as a Swahili-themed dinner on the jetty with a buffet and convivial atmosphere.

Our three bars serve a range of fresh juices, wines, beers and cocktails. For sundowners, head to the jetty bar, where staff will also be on hand to arrange activities for the coming days according to the weather forecast.
