

A stylish way to experience Zanzibar: natural, relaxed glamour right on the beach ... This is the vision behind Upendo: a unique property set harmoniously on 2 hectares of the lush, tropical landscape, kissed by the warm turquoise waters of the Indian Ocean.

Upendo consists of three private villas (one three-bedroom, two one-bedroom), plus two additional makuti Banda rooms, lounge restaurant and main pool, with a delicious blend of contemporary architectural lines and traditional local materials. Upendo in Kiswahili means 'Love'

THE CONCEPT

'I want to give my guests a framework for a hip, intimate but honest experience of Zanzibar', says Trish Dhanak the designer of Upendo. 'I created the villa with a traveller like myself in mind... someone who's looking for the comforts of a home as beautiful inside as the environment around it and furnished with the modern comforts of our metropolitan lives: a Manhattan loft on the beach! What makes Upendo unique is the use of the local materials which integrate its modern style into the environment.'
